BATES COLLEGE
Lewiston, Maine

. . . In Appreciation

A mirror clearly reflects any subject directly before it, but how much of the background is vividly pictured? For a more inclusive view of the surrounding area, a looking-glass must be focused in different directions.

This 1959 issue of the MIRROR, likewise, shifts its focus to provide a fuller reflection of the people and the way of life, the seniors, the teams and clubs, the spirit, the smiles and victories included within its covers. To picture Bates as vibrantly alive, to reflect the changes from Speech 111 to Cultch 402, to delve beneath the outer surface of formality to catch a deeper meaning and significance in these four years of college life, becomes the main intent of the book.

Just as the ivy branch grows longer and fuller each year, so does our reaction toward and our appreciation of Bates develop a larger significance. It is fairly impossible to be part of this college community and remain untouched by it.

In our day-to-day living at Bates, nugget, cram, trend, or goose arouse meaningful images. Pit, puddle, Smurd, thesis, or beat spill out in conversation. We value these facets of Bates, yet how much more do we appreciate our association with people who have gone on to greater fields of endeavor, the pleasant changes in the dining rooms, a symphony orchestra, a winning track team, or an international debate.

In a larger sense, more than these single events of today, will we appreciate the impressions and enduring ideals Bates offers us. From the campus we gain a sense of stability and assurance. We look to the faculty for scholarship and guidance, to the seniors for leadership. By working together in various organizations, we learn the meaning of co-operation. We cast our vote of confidence by supporting college activities. Active and passive participation in athletic contests yields sportsmanship. Out of communal living grow deep and lasting friendships.

Herein lies the real Bates. This deserves our true appreciation.

Ivy Day Ode

Turn the spade of time
That we may plant the roots of our remembrance.
Ivy, marked by our plaque of cold, grey stone,
Will cover the ancient memory of our passing
With warm, green life.

Each leaf is a growing, inconspicuous token
Of our deeds, meagre and mighty,
In the world we make for ourselves.
Time, never break the root branch free;
The new world may be lonely.

We have drawn our nurture
From the earth of knowledge;
With knowledge we grow and hold to life,
As ivy clinging on these walls.
Light, burst through these leaves
And free the energy of truth!

May a wreath of ivy crown our heads,
Our symbol of achievement
Worn invisible every year,
Each year an added leaf
Of academic progress.

Now, may the pursuit of knowledge
Follow us, through our lives
And our worlds, the worlds to come,
The worlds we discover and make.
We reach for the architecture of success.

Culmination of our toil, plant of life and mind:
Grow with undying power, life force.
In your quiet way strengthen us,
Through years of joy, and years of suffering.
After our death, live on, memorial ivy.

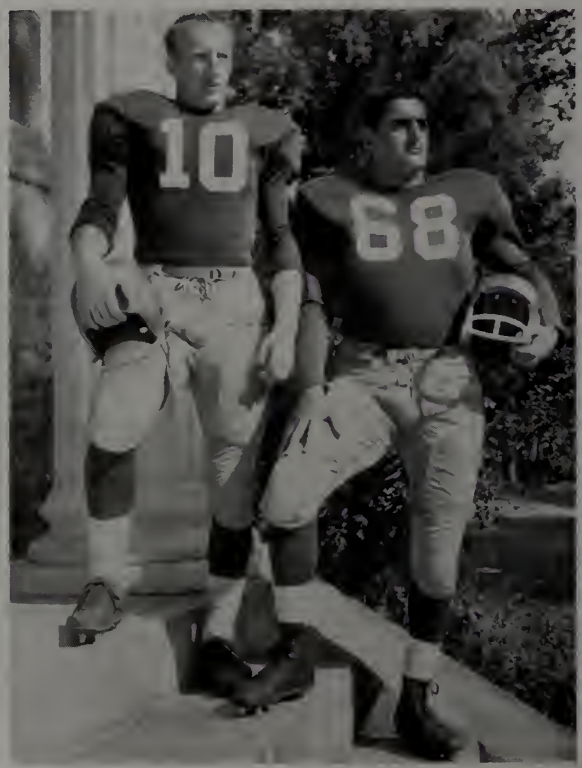
Football

Plagued by injuries that hampered several key men throughout the season, the Garnet eleven felt the consequences of a serious lack of depth. They repeatedly suffered "second-half-itis", which found their more formidable opponents wearing them down during the final two periods of play. Thus they managed to compile but a 2-4-1 record on the season.

Most graphic of these experiences was the tilt at Orono, where the giant University of Maine squad took prideful revenge for two successive beatings by the Bobcats and expanded a slim 8-0 halftime lead into a 40-0 rout.



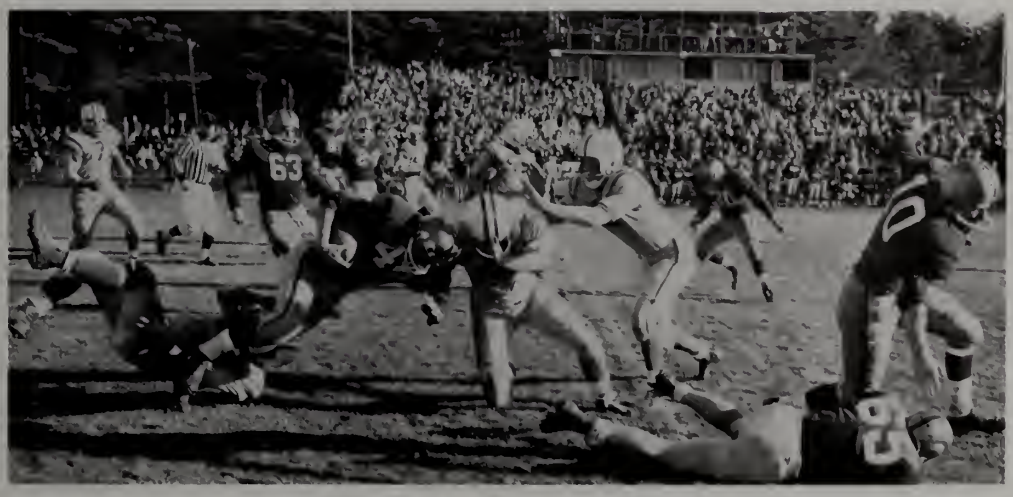
The Bowdoin Polar Bears were their winless but troublesome selves as they again played their best football against the Garnet, holding the hosts to a 14-14 tie and dampening Homecoming festivities.

Against the eventual champion Colby Mules, the Bates eleven staged a rare second half comeback. However, the damage had already been done earlier and they bowed grudgingly, 25-18.

Garcelon Field was the scene of an opening day victory as the Garnet rolled to an impressive 27-6 win over Union, and the following week's 24-14 loss at Tufts was no humiliation for the Jumbos were one of the East's top small college elevens.

Against the Worcester Tech Engineers the Garnet offense, with two backfield aces still hobbling from Jumbo injuries and another key back sidelined, lacked the all-important punch which resulted in an 18-6 victory for W.P.I.

Back on the Garcelon rectangle the Bobcats managed to pull themselves together with enough tape and liniment to thwart Middlebury, 20-0, thus lifting local spirits to high hopes entering the perennial State Series round.



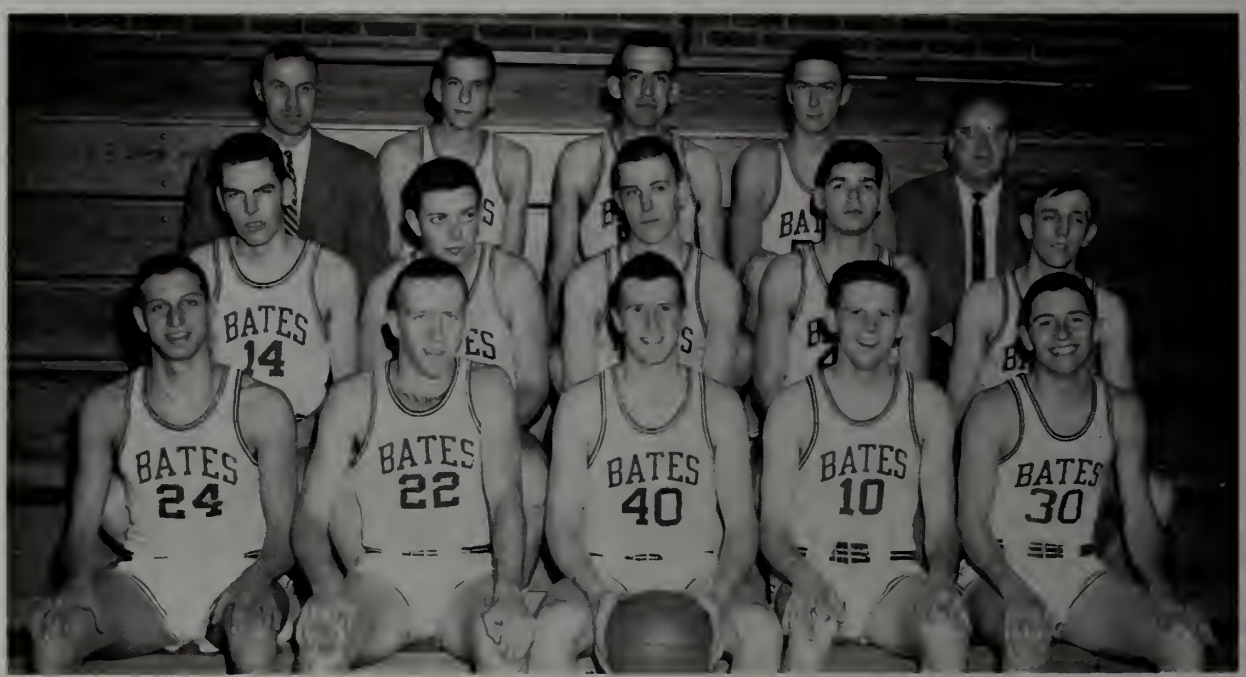
Basketball

The Bobcat varsity basketball team captained by senior guard, Jack O'Grady, finished the season with one of their best records in recent years. The 1958-59 campaign ended with a record of 12 wins and 8 losses.

The season opened with State Series play, finding Bates losing to Colby and Maine. In the Colby contest Bates' big center, Jim Sutherland picked off 22 rebounds in a closely contested game. The following week found the Bobcats on the rebound with a win over Bowdoin. At the Christmas break Bates held a 2-3 record.

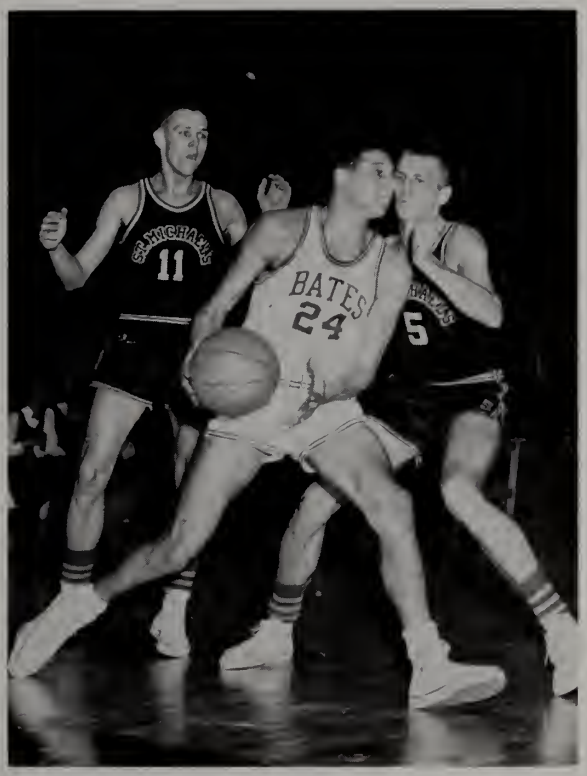
A big highlight of the season found Bates participating in the first Down East Classic, Dec. 31 - Jan. 3 with Maine, Colby, Bowdoin, Rutgers, Wesleyan, St. Michaels, and Tufts. The improving Bobcats finished third behind St. Michaels and Colby by beating Wesleyan 69-63, Bowdoin 71-54 and losing to St. Michaels 68-44. Jerry Feld was big man in the Wesleyan tilt with 24 points, while Joe Murphy led the Bobcats in the Bowdoin game with 25.

Following the Classic, Bates lost to hot-handed Colby again but rebounded with eight wins in the next nine starts. This streak was highlighted by Jim Sutherland's 29 points against Bowdoin, the hustling play of Dave Smith, Jerry Feld's 13 for 13 from the foul line against Tufts, Jack O'Grady's 8 assists against Bowdoin, and the scintillating, all around play of Joe Murphy.

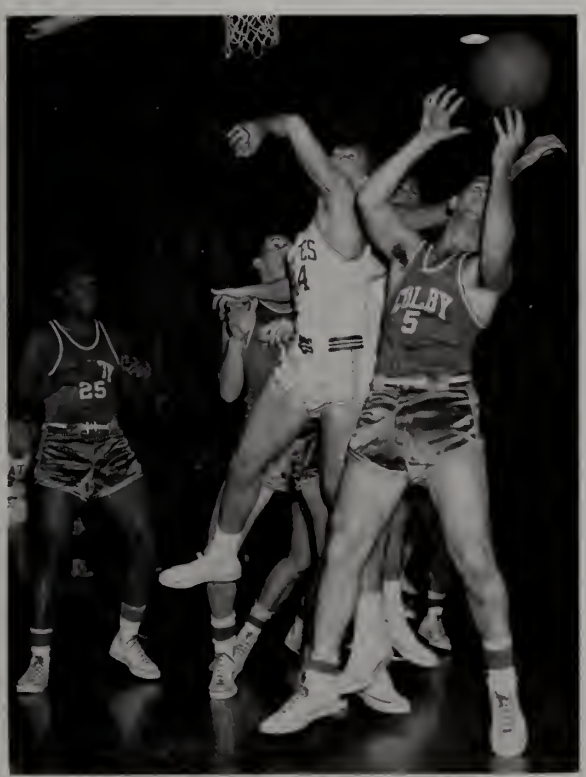


1958-1959 BASKETBALL TEAM

First row: G. Feld, D. Smith, J. O'Grady, (Capt.), R. Deacon, J. DeGange. Second row: M. Johnson, J. Murphy, S. Brown, P. Candelino; J. Lawler. Third row: R. Peck, (Coach), J. Curry, J. Sutherland, A. Pfeiffer, R. Castelpoggi, (Mgr.).



With two games remaining Bates still had a chance for the Series title but was defeated by Maine's hustling fast break and Colby's sharp shooting. This put Bates third in Series play with Maine and Colby battling for first.

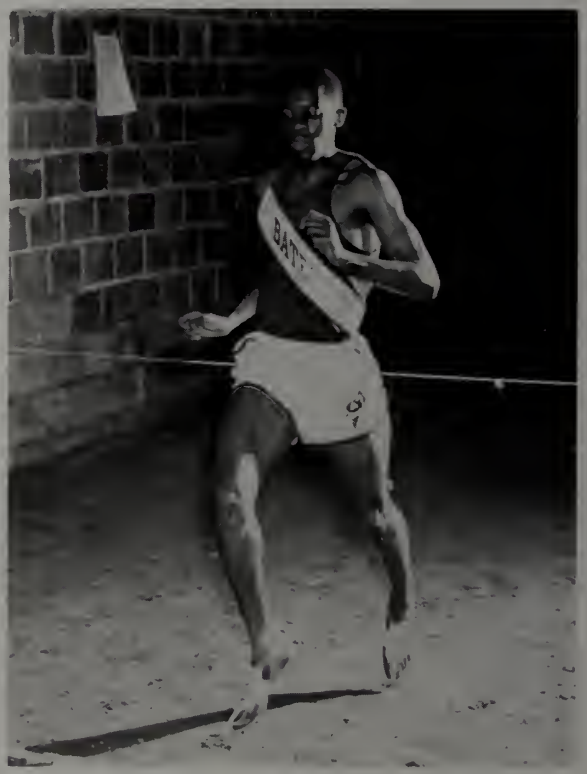


Winter Track

The 1958-1959 winter track season, although very successful, witnessed the inevitable when the Black Bears from Maine defeated the Bobcat thinclads to halt their win streak at twenty-one consecutive victories over a total of thirty-one opponents. While the loss to Maine ruined the chances for another perfect slate, the Slovenskimen ended the season with a fine 4-1 record compiling wins over MIT, UNH, Northeastern and Bowdoin.

For the third consecutive season Juniors Rudy Smith and John Douglas were the outstanding performers, but they received strong support from Pete Gartner, Dave Erdman, Pete Schuyler and a host of others. High points of the season were the races in which Rudy was twice nicked at the tape in the 600 yard run by Ed Collymore of Villanova, and the tremendous performance of Douglas when he broad-jumped 25′ ¾″ at Madison Square Garden. Also deserving of mention is the mile relay team composed of Larry Boston, Lou Riviezzo, Pete Schuyler, and Smith which ran the fastest relay ever recorded by a Maine college aggregation with the time of 3:25.6.

Although Coach Walt Slovenski will lose through graduation co-captains Gartner and Erdman, Larry Hubbard, Fletcher Adams, and Ralph Posner, he still will have a powerful nucleus on which to build another winning team in the coming year.



1958-1959 WINTER TRACK TEAM

1958 SPRING TRACK

First row: M. Whitehouse, J. Makowsky, W. Taylor, J. Fresina, (Co-Capt.), W. Neuguth, (Co-Capt.), J. Wheeler, (Co-Capt.), R. LaPointe, D. Erdman, D. Stewart. Second row: W. Slovenski (Coach), J. Douglas, D. Randall, A. Turner, D. Morse, J. Kenyon, P. Gartner, L. Hubbard, M. Allen, P. Stewart, (Mgr.). Third row: J. Walsh, R. Bates, L. Riviezzo, J. Keenan, D. Jellison, R. Dube, R. Posner. Fourth row: B. Greenlaw, J. Bowie, D. Sweetser, B. Gerstein.

Spring Track

The spring thinclads clinched its second straight state flag with a tight win over Maine, Bowdoin, and Colby on Bowdoin's Whittier Field.

Strength in the weight events, along with the efforts of Rudy Smith in the middle distances, provided the Garnet with enough push to edge the University boys, 65 2/10 to 62 2/10. This climaxed the Bobcats' fourth straight undefeated season, indoor and out, in the past two years.

For the first time in many years, Coach Walt Slovenski's boys were represented in many of the major meets in the East. The recording-breaking twins, Smith and John Douglas became the best traveled members of the squad, competing in such meets as the K. of C. games in both Boston Garden and Madison Square Garden, as well as the B. A. A. contests in Boston.

Smith, competing in the 440, usually found himself tied up in a personal duel with Olympic Champion Charlie Jenkins, Rudy beating him on one occasion and placing close second in the other contests.

Douglas, a consistent 24-foot broad jumper, fared well in his trips, and although he did not manage an out-and-out victory, he garnered respectable places in the competition.

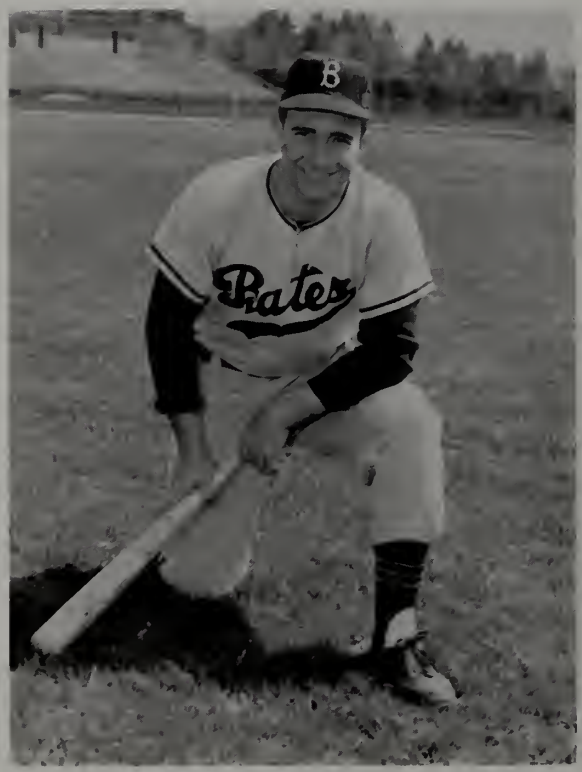
Baseball

The final mark of seven wins and ten losses registered by the 1958 Bates pastimers does not picture the true caliber of the team, which was involved in no less than nine games decided by score differences of two runs or less. Consequently, fans were treated to some fine baseball, and with an occasional break at the needed moment the Bobcats' record would have been much better.



Opening the closest-matched State Series in history, the Garnet scored one run in the last of the ninth, to back the great effort of Jon Whitten and reap a 2-1 victory over the Polar Bears of Bowdoin.

The next week it was Whitten again who held the rampaging Colby Mules in check while his mates squeezed out another 2-1 win, marking Colby's first defeat in ten games.

In out-of-state competition, the pastimers showed well, with wins over Upsala College and Pace College on the annual March trip to the New York area. During this same series, losses were dropped to Adelphi and Long Island University, both by the one-run margin.

Against Massachusetts foes, the charges of Coach Chick Leahey topped Suffolk University, Brandeis, and Northeastern. Again close tilts were dropped to both Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Clark University.

Freshman Frank Vana, with a .300 batting average, was selected as All-Maine center fielder, marking the second time in three years that a freshman has been chosen from Bates as an All-State representative.

Golf

The Bates golf team managed to snap a losing streak during last spring's schedule to post a 1-7 record. Coached by Bob Hatch and skippered by Pete Jodaitis, the linkmen also tied Bowdoin for second place in the Maine State Tournament.

With a total of seven returning veterans, including standouts captain-elect Ross Deacon, Mal Johnson, Jon Prothero, and Bob Zering, the Garnet are looking to make this their most successful season.

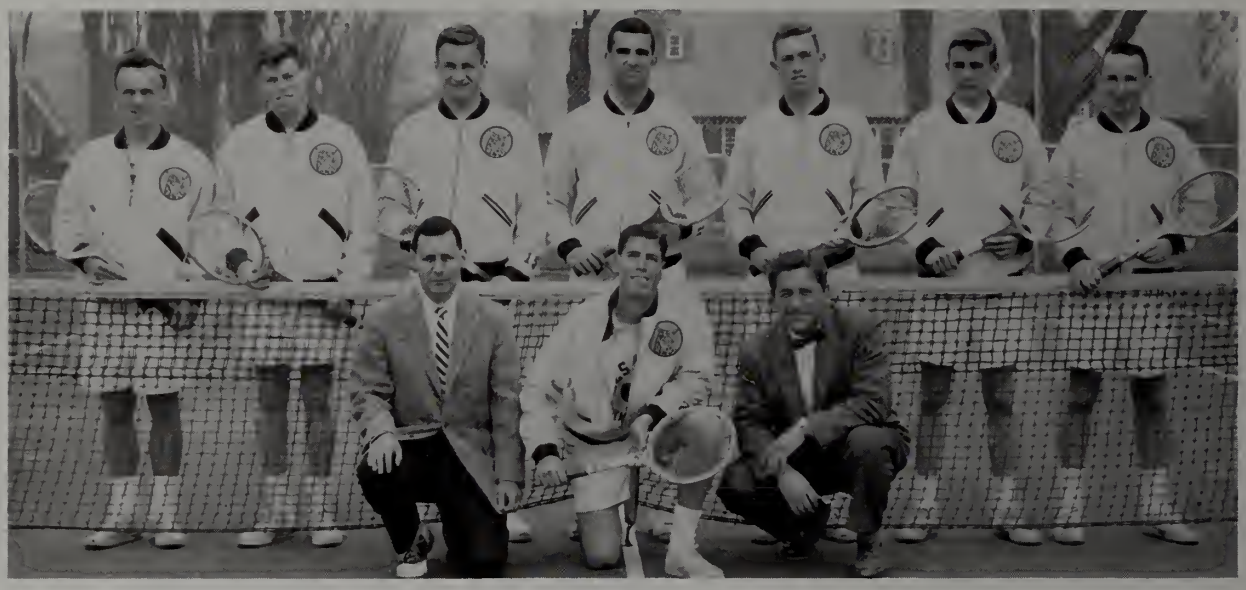
1958 GOLF TEAM

First row: R. Hatch (Coach), P. Jodaitis (Capt.), M. Johnson, R. Deacon, W. Heidel, R. Glass, J. Prothero, R. Zering.

Tennis

Back in the spring of 1958 the Bates tennis season ended with the Bobcats posting a creditable 6 and 5 record. Led by Captain Pete Meilen and veteran standout Phil Feinsot, the netmen established team, as well as personal records. The season's highlight came when captain Meilen and Feinsot won the Maine State doubles championship.

With the return of Dr. Robert Peck, the 1956 tennis mentor, and a nucleus of the 1958 squad, the prospects for a successful season this year appear good. The team will be captained by Junior David Graham.



1958 TENNIS TEAM

First row: A. Palaris (Mgr.), P. Meilan (Capt.), L. Lux (Coach). Second row: B. Johnson, P. Feinsot, R. Langley, J. Mines, C. Parker, F. Auwater, D. Graham.

Soccer

The soccer "club" completed its third uncoached year against Maine Colleges with a four and four record.

Captain Bob "Chip" Leonard will be missed next year as well as other senior members, Clark Welton and Erich Walka. A strong core still remains in the presence of next year's co-captains, Dick Yerg and Fred Turner, and returning veterans George Deuillet, Dave Rushforth, John Adams, and goalie Art Agnos.

A future goal the club has in mind is to follow the Colby and Bowdoin teams by being recognized as a varsity sport.

Cross Country

This fall the cross-country team was initiated as a new varsity sport at Bates. The team did a creditable job for itself ending the season with a one and one record in dual meet competition and taking second place in both of their triangular meets.

Next year will see a stronger team, since none of the endurance men are graduating. This past year freshmen Larry Boston, Pete Schuyler, and Jerry Anderson turned in good performances as well as the versatile Rudy Smith and improving DeWitt Randall and Roger Bates.

1958 CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM
